

Australia should adopt the goal of an 80% GHG emissions reduction by 2050 (v1990 levels), and set interim carbon budgets for every 5 years between now and 2050. These should be legislated targets, similar to the UK Climate Change Act 2008.

Kind regards,

Chris

Chris Nunn

Sustainability Director, Australia